● PANEL TO SCRUTINISE NTA ● UGC-NET PAPER LEAKED ON DARK NET

Institutional failure of NTA: Govt

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

UNDER fire over alleged irregularities in the NEET-UG and the UGC-NET, Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan on Thursday admitted that consecutive paper leak cases affecting the lives of at least 35 lakh students represent an institutional failure of the National Testing Agency (NTA).

He announced the formation of a high-level panel to scrutinise the functioning of the NTA, which conducted those exams. The panel will comprise eminent individuals, sociologists and education experts who will examine the NTA's structure, functioning, exam processes, transparency and data management, he said.

Pradhan's announcement came a day after the NTA cancelled the UGC-NET after it got confirmation that the question paper was leaked on the dark net. The matter is now under investigation by the CBI.

Addressing concerns about the NEET-UG as well, Pradhan said isolated instances of malpractice should not unfairly impact lakhs of students who legitimately passed the exam. He urged the Opposition not to politicise the matter and assured strict actions against any the guilty, including NTA officials.

By taking responsibility, we have to rectify the system. We are committed to exams with zero errors. I request everyone to not spread rumours

Dharmendra Pradhan

"Let us have faith in our systems; no irregularities or malpractices will be tolerated by the government," he said.

Regarding the cancellation of the UGC-NET exam for junior research fellows, assistant professors, and PhD scholars, Pradhan revealed that the exam paper had been leaked on the Telegram site. He, however, added that the government was committed to maintaining the integrity of the examination process and sought people's trust in the system.

Pradhan said although an anti-cheating bill had been approved by both Houses of Parliament earlier this year, the law ministry is currently refining the associated regulations. "At present, we lack effective measures to confront such challenges (paper leaks)," he said.

"Modern software such as Telegram is often utilised to leak exam questions. When administering exams for PhD scholars, ensuring high standards is crucial. Despite the difficulties, we are committed to addressing them. New examination dates for the UGC-NET will be announced shortly," he said.

The results of NEET-UG conducted on May 5 with approximately 24 lakh candidates was announced on June 4. An unprecedented 67 students got the perfect score of 720 on 720, raising concerns about irregularities.

SC stays proceedings on NEET-UG in HCs, issues notices to NTA, govt

THE Supreme Court on Thursday stayed all proceedings before various high courts on the the conduct of the NEET-UG exam and issued notices to the National Testing Agency (NTA) and the Centre on a fresh bunch of pleas against irregularities in the exam.

A two-judge vacation bench of justices Vikram Nath and S V N Bhatti was hearing the NTA's request to transfer all cases filed in various high courts on the matter to itself. The bench tagged it along with other pending pleas for hearing on July 8.

The court reiterated its refusal to stay the counselling. More than 35 petitions have been filed in the top court, including a fresh petition by a group of 20 students, seeking the scrapping of the NEET-UG 2024 and an SC-monitored probe by the CBI or any other independent agency into the alleged irregularities.

"All this has been argued from day one and they (some petitioners) have been wanting stay of counselling. We have denied that. Ultimately, if all of you succeed, everything will go," the bench told the petitioners, one of whom sought deferment of the counselling till July 8.

Delhi court grants bail to Kejriwal

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY
@ New Delhi

IN a big relief to Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal, a Delhi court on Thursday granted him bail in the money laundering case that stems from the alleged excise scam.

Kejriwal is the prime accused in the case related to the now scrapped Delhi liquor policy.

The court granted bail after directing Kejriwal to furnish a personal bail bond of ₹1 lakh.

Vacation Judge of the Rouse Avenue Court, Niyay Bindu, declined the Enforcement Directorate's request to keep the bail order in abeyance for 48 hours to allow it to appeal.

Kejriwal is expected to come out of Tihar Jail by Friday evening after furnishing the bail bond and completing other formalities.

The judge also directed Kejriwal to appear before the court whenever required and to cooperate with the investigation.

It is to be noted that as the summer vacations are currently going on in courts, it's the duty judges who hear important cases involving human liberty and bail matters.

60% OF DEATHS DUE TO ROAD ACCIDENTS, SAYS NIMHANS STUDY

Two-wheeler riders make up 60-70%

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

WITH deaths and injuries due to road accidents and drowning on the rise, a recent study by National Institute of Mental Health and Neuro Sciences (Nimhans) shows that 60% of the deaths are due to road accidents.

Nimhans gets around 1,000 cases a month -- 25-30 cases per day -- of head injuries and deaths related to road accidents.

Dr Gautham M Sukumar, Additional Professor, Department of Epidemiology, Centre for Public Health, Nimhans, said that among head injury cases and fatalities, two-wheeler riders make up 60-70 per cent, and children constitute 7-9 per cent. Though children constitute less than 10 per cent of the cases, it's a major loss to the country, he said.

"We have also noticed that the number of minors, especially those in the 14-18 age group, is on the rise. At least 70% of head injury and road accident cases belong to this age group. They are too young to understand road safety, are just starting to get independent, and exposure is also high. Their numbers on roads is also on the rise," he said.

To address the issue of road safety, Nimhans is working with Bengaluru Traffic Police to assess the safety of children on roads. The team is also working on a separate policy for children, as the number of kids suffering injuries and dying is on the rise.

A senior police official admitted to the need to improve traffic and road safety laws. "If a minor is found riding a vehicle, not only is the rider/driver booked, the minor's guardian and vehicle owner are booked. Incidents of children dying due to road accidents and drowning are on the rise, compared to other cases," he admitted.

The Nimhans team, along with Bloomberg, John Hopkins University, transport department and traffic police, have taken up a study of roads and reasons for accidents. The speed of vehicles in the city ranges from 15kmph to 74kmph, depending on the signal, traffic congestion, location and timing. A thorough road safety audit is required.

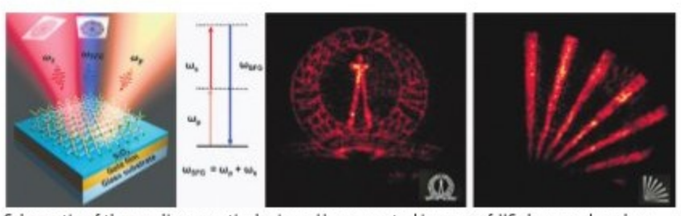
IISc fabricates device to convert infrared light into the visible range

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

RESEARCHERS at the Indian Institute of Science (IISc) have fabricated a device to increase or 'up-convert' the frequency of short infrared light to the visible range. The human eye can only see light at certain frequencies (called the visible spectrum), the lowest of which constitutes red light.

Up-conversion of light has diverse applications, especially in defence and optical communications. The IISc team used a 2D material to design what they call a non-linear optical mirror stack to achieve this up-conversion, combined with wide-field imaging capability. The stack consists of multi-layered gallium selenide fixed to the top of a gold reflective surface with a silicon dioxide layer sandwiched in between, said a press release from IISC.

Traditional infrared imaging uses exotic low-energy bandgap semiconductors or micro-bolometer arrays, which usually pick up heat or absorption signatures from the object being studied. Infrared imaging and sensing are useful in diverse areas, from astronomy to chemistry. However, existing infrared sensors are bulky and not very efficient. They are also export-restricted because of their utility in defence, the release added.



Schematic of the nonlinear optical mirror. Up-converted images of IISc logo and spokes

The method used by the IISc team involves feeding an input infrared signal along with a pump beam onto the mirror stack. The nonlinear optical properties of the material constituting the stack result in a mixing of the frequencies, leading to an output beam of increased (up-converted) frequency, but with the rest of the properties intact.

Using this method, IISC team were able to up-convert infrared light of wavelength around 1550nm to 622nm visible light.

"This process is coherent – the properties of the input beam are preserved at the output. This means that if one imprints a particular pattern in the input infrared frequency, it automatically gets transferred to the new output frequency," explains Varun Raghunathan, associate professor in the Department of Electrical Communication Engineering (ECE) and corresponding author of the study published in Laser and Photonics Reviews.

BTP uses AI drones to manage traffic

ENS @ Bengaluru

TO equip drones with advanced sensors for monitoring traffic flow, detecting congestion, and providing real-time data to enhance traffic management, the Bangalore Traffic Police (BTP) in collaboration with Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology (NMIT) launched the AI Drone Swarm Initiative.

A drone swarm typically consists of multiple drones working in coordination, communicating with each other, and sharing information to achieve a common objective. These drones can be the same type or different, ranging from small quadcopters to larger fixed-wing drones.

The drones were developed by 40 engineering students from NMIT under the guidance of Dassault System Foundation, which aims to push the boundaries of knowledge, and inspire a passion for engineering and science among young students at schools and universities.

Chief Guest MN Anucheth, Joint Commissioner of Police - Traffic, mentioned that these drones will enable the city traffic police to ticket vehicles for overspeeding on the airport road.

Discussing the technology's impact on traffic systems, the senior official added that the technology will serve as one of the input tools for the ASTraM application, a smart traffic engine which offers comprehensive insights into the road traffic scenario.

THE police custody of actor Darshan Thoogudeepa, accused number 2 in the Renukaswamy murder case, has been extended by two days on Thursday.

Three other accused — D Dhanaraj alias Raju, accused number 9, from RR Nagar; V Vinay (38), accused number 10 from RR Nagar, and S Pradush (40), accused number 14 from JP Road in Girinagar — will also be in police custody till Saturday.

According to the police, Dhanaraj gave electric shocks to the victim with a megger device (an electrical testing equipment) and Vinay, owner of Stonny Brook pub in RR Nagar had allowed the accused to torture and kill the victim at his uncle's shed in Pattanagere. Police had recovered Rs 30 lakh in cash from the residence of Pradush, an IT engineer who had earlier worked in the IT cell of a national political party.

BBMP NOTICE TO K JAYANNA

The BBMP's RR Nagar division has issued a notice to K Jayanna, owner of the shed in Pattanagere where Renukaswamy was murdered, for not paying property tax since 2008. Jayanna has been given 15 days time to reply to the notice along with the documents and the reasons for not paying the tax.

The remaining accused, including P Pavithra Gowda, Puttaswamy, Raghavendra, Nandeesh, Jagadish, Ravi Shankar and Deepak have been remanded to judicial custody. Police had made elaborate police security arrangements, deploying three KSRP platoons, near Parappana Agrahara to avert any untoward incident. Pavithra's minor daughter had come to the court along with her grandmother.

Over 6L vehicles in state, only 1,109 affix trackers, panic buttons

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

OF the over 6 lakh vehicles in Karnataka, not even 1% have affixed the mandatory vehicle location tracker devices and emergency panic buttons.

After the Nibhaya incident, the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways (MoRTH) mandated the setting up of location tracker devices and panic buttons in all the public service vehicles like buses, cabs (including the ones run by aggregators), maxi cabs, school buses, and all goods vehicles with national permit.

According to the data available with the Karnataka transport department, there are 6,04,863 vehicles and of this, a mere 1,109 vehicles have followed the norm. The transport department has set the deadline as September 10 for all the vehicle owners to fall in line.

Asked about the poor response, an official from the transport department said, "Many vehicle owners have not fallen in line as they are not aware that the rule is mandatory. We are creating awareness and urging the vehicle owners to install the device. We have identified empanelled vendors from where vehicle owners can get the device installed and the same will be updated on the Vahan portal."

The official said that the measure is taken to keep the passengers safe. "In case of any emergency, the passenger or driver can hit the panic button, which will alert the command centre set up by the transport department at a cost of Rs 20.4 crore. The team at the centre will respond to the emergency alert by tracking the vehicle's location and get in touch with the vehicle owner or driver. In case the situation demands, the police will also be alerted," the official added.

Meanwhile, Karnataka Transport Minister Ramalinga Reddy said that for those vehicles that do not fix the tracking device, their fitness certificates will not be renewed adding that this way they will ensure that everyone falls in line.

FOLLOWING an alleged attempt of the city police to arrest journalist and YouTuber Ajeet Bharti in Noida, Karnataka BJP president BY Vijayendra criticised the Siddaramaiah-led Congress government.

High Grounds police had, on June 15, registered a case against Bharti for allegedly making false claims on social media that Congress leader Rahul Gandhi was planning to resurrect the Babri Masjid in place of the Ram Temple.

Amidst a buzz that police had reached Noida to arrest Bharti, the latter took to X on Thursday, stating, "Noida police swung into action as soon as I informed them. The work that could have been done by an e-mail, three cops were sent to do that."

High Grounds police said, "We have served notice to Bharti to appear before the police. He has not been arrested."

Vijayendra stated on X, "The @INCKarnataka government's attempt to arrest @ajeetbharti for whimsical reasons is purely dictatorial. @BJP4Karnataka will stand solidly with @ajeetbharti and provide all the support needed to fight this case."

THE state cabinet on Thursday approved a proposal to declare 33 units of Directorate of Civil Rights Enforcement as special police stations. It also gave approval for 450 posts to manage these stations dedicated to track cases registered under the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act.

Disclosing this to reporters here, Law Minister HK Patil said since 2022, 7,633 cases have been filed. Of them, 1,723 have been disposed of and 1,363 ended in acquittals. However, only in 68 cases, the accused have been punished, which is hardly 4%.

"In order to dispose of cases early and reduce burden on regular stations, this decision has been taken," he said. New guidelines will be framed by the Home and Social Welfare departments. The Union government will give its share of funds to set up the special stations, he added.

The cabinet made it mandatory to keep Dr BR Ambedkar's portrait along with that of Mahatma Gandhi at major events to mark Constitution Day on November 26, Republic Day on January 26 and Independence Day on August 15. All government offices, schools and colleges should display the portraits of Gandhiji and Ambedkar on these occasions, Patil said.

No decision on 7th Pay panel's recommendations

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah and his ministers on Thursday discussed the Seventh Pay Commission's recommendations, but did not take a decision on implementing them.

The commission submitted its report three months ago. According to sources, the report was not on the meeting agenda. This was the second Cabinet meeting after the withdrawal of the Model Code of Conduct implemented in the state for Lok Sabha elections.

The commission headed by former chief secretary K Sudhakar Rao submitted its report to Siddaramaiah on March 16 just before the LS elections were announced. The commission recommended a 27.5% pay hike for government employees. According to officials, if this is implemented, it would cost the exchequer at least Rs 12,000 crore annually.

The sources said Rs 12,000 crore will be an additional burden on the government, which is spending nearly Rs 60,000 crore on five guarantee schemes every year. Some ministers objected to the implementation of the pay hike recommendation during the meeting.

A senior official said the Sixth Pay Commission's tenure ended in July 2022. The government has not taken steps to implement the commission's report even after two years of its submission. "Our salary does not match with that of employees of the Union government. There is pressure on the state government by its employees and their unions," the official added.

The cabinet gave administrative approval for the development of 7,110 km of roads at a cost of ₹5,190 crore in rural areas under the Pragathi Patha scheme. These roads were built under the Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana and Namma Grama Namma Raste Yojane 10 years ago.

GUARANTEES EMPTIED STATE TREASURY, SAYS SHETTAR

BELAGAVI: Criticising the rise in fuel prices in the state, the Belagavi city block of BJP staged a protest at Dharmaveer Sambhaji Circle here on Thursday. BJP party workers, under the leadership of Belagavi BJP MP Jagadish Shettar, condemned the Congress government in the state for hiking petrol and diesel prices in Karnataka. "The state treasury has become empty because of the guarantee schemes. Thus, to collect funds for the same, the government has started cutting the pockets of the poor by hiking fuel prices in the state. The residents of Karwar had to drive to Goa to get petrol and diesel at a cheaper price. The rising cost of fuel impacts prices of other essential commodities. The government should immediately withdraw the hike, or else the BJP will intensify its protest across the state," Shettar warned. ENS

UNDER CONG RULE, MOST COMMODITIES WOULD GET COSTLIER, SAYS LoP

KALABURAGI: Police took Leader of Opposition in the Assembly R Ashoka and other leaders into preventive custody on the charges of disrupting traffic at Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel Circle here on Thursday. They were later released. The BJP leaders protested against the hike in petrol and diesel prices by the government. Ashoka alleged that when CM Siddaramaiah was the LoP, he used to criticise the BJP government over increasing prices of petroleum products. He had also previously assured that if the Congress came to power, it would not do the same. But it has broken its promise. "It is the era of the Congress, where people will see hikes in the prices of all commodities; the government has already announced its intent to increase tax on water, and has already increased the power tariff. In the coming days, prices of most commodities would go up," he charged. ENS

BJP protests against hike in fuel price

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Opposition BJP on Thursday staged protests across Karnataka against the recent fuel price hike in the state.

In Bengaluru, BJP workers led by state party president BY Vijayendra took out a bicycle rally from the party office in Malleswaram to protest the hike. Several leaders, including Dr CN Ashwath Narayan, CT Ravi, and Chalavadi Narayana Swamy, took part in the rally and hit out at the State Government holding placards. They were detained on their way to Vidhana Soudha.

Vijayendra told reporters that the BJP will continue protesting until the government rolls back the hike. The price hike has burdened the common people, he said.

Taking to 'X', Vijayendra condemned the police action, and said that their anger cannot be suppressed by force. "The day is not far when people of the state will take to the streets and fight against the Congress government. The BJP's struggle will not end until the hike is rolled back," he said.

Recently, petrol prices were increased by Rs 3 and diesel by Rs 3.5 in the state. Several Congress leaders, including ministers, defended the move, saying that fuel prices were hiked to implement development work in the state. However, BJP leaders alleged that the Congress government was facing a financial crisis owing to the guarantee schemes. Former CM and Haveri MP Basavaraj Bommai said that the Congress has burdened the citizens to win votes under the guise of guarantees. "The Congress government has no moral authority to govern, and Chief Minister Siddaramaiah should resign," Bommai said at a protest rally in Davanagere. The Leader of the Opposition in the Assembly R Ashoka took part in a protest in Kalaburagi.

K'buragi's Jayadeva hosp goes 3 days without surgeries, Ashoka seeks probe

ENS @ Kalaburagi

LEADER of Opposition in the Assembly R Ashoka visited the Jayadeva Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences Hospital, situated in the building of Gulbarga Institute of Medical Sciences (GIMS), on Thursday, after reports surfaced that no surgeries were performed here over a three-day period -- June 16, 17 and 18.

Ashoka visited the wards of both GIMS, as well as Jayadeva, and interacted with patients, attendants and doctors of both hospitals. The patients and their attendants confirmed that Jayadeva Hospital did not perform any surgeries for the said three days, reportedly due to a lack of pure water. The Kalaburagi Municipal Corporation allegedly supplied mud-mixed water via tankers, which was unfit for drinking, and as required for surgical procedures, mentioned the patients and doctors.

Later, Ashoka addressed the media, where he said that on a daily basis, 300 heart patients visit the Jayadeva Hospital in Kalaburagi. In the absence of proper medical care, including the stoppage of surgeries, it is not known where the patients went. Heart patients need immediate attention and care. If they are not given treatment soon, their situation could turn critical.

The said issue has harmed the reputation of Jayadeva Hospital too. "It is the duty of the government to provide uninterrupted power and water supply to health facilities. The government could have spent Rs 20 lakh a day towards providing clean water to the Jayadeva Hospital in Kalaburagi. It is a lapse on the part of the government," he alleged.

"Kalaburagi district has powerful ministers like Priyank Kharge, Dr Sharanaprakash Patil, and BR Patil, who is the political advisor to the chief minister. What were these powerful persons doing when Jayadeva Institute was facing problems," questioned Ashoka. The LoP also stated that it is a lapse on the part of the Kalaburagi Mahanagara Palike, which was duty-bound to supply water to the hospital on priority basis.

Ashoka added that that he would write a letter to the Chief Secretary and would also speak with him personally, and ask him to conduct a proper inquiry into the matter and bring the guilty to book.

Premium liquor to get cheaper from July 1

ENS @ Bengaluru

PRICES of premium liquor in Karnataka will come down drastically from July 1. As announced in the budget by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, the state government issued a draft notification on Thursday, on rationalisation of tax slabs on premium liquor, to make them competitive with the neighbouring states and to bring buoyancy to the sector.

According to the notification, the new prices will come into effect from July 1. The excise department has invited objections, if any, for reduction in excise duties on 16 categories of high-end liquor. Sources in the government said, from July 1, prices will come down from Rs 100 to Rs 2,000, depending on the brands. "Prices of brandy, whiskey, gin, rum, and other such liquor - except beer, wine, toddy and fenny - will come down," a source said. Exact reduction will depend on the brand and the quantity.

According to the official, except for some brands which are cheaper, prices of all other liquor are much higher in Karnataka. "Since liquor prices are much cheaper in the neighbouring states, we are losing out on revenue. The rationalisation of tax slabs will help increase the tax revenues by almost double in the next 2-3 years. Although there may be a slight dip in revenues in the short term, the proposed move will increase volume of sales resulting in better tax mobilisation," the official said.

Alcohol in Karnataka is priced and taxed according to its slab. There are 18 slabs, with the cheapest alcohol falling in the first and the most expensive IML in the 18th. Top brands of IML are priced much higher in Karnataka than in other states because of various reasons, including high taxes. The cost of a premium brand of Scotch whiskey is around Rs 7,000 in Karnataka, whereas it is much lower in other states.

Siddu firm, no transfers this season

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

THE issue of transfers cropped up towards the fag end of the Cabinet meeting on Thursday, after the main agenda had been discussed for a good 150 minutes. With the government working on an official transfer policy which is due to be finalised by the cabinet soon, some ministers urged Chief Minister Siddaramaiah to consent to transfers now as there are no restrictions.

The CM was firm that he would not entertain transfer pleas, and cautiously reminded ministers that negative remarks had been made against the government last year due to the issue of transfers, and it would be prudent not to take up the issue now. He then rose to leave, signalling that it was the end of the matter.

It is the CM who handles transfers of Class-I officers and above, while the lower rungs are left to ministers and MLAs.

With May and June the designated season of official transfers, about 6-8 per cent of government staffers seek transfers, which is allowed as per tradition. This year, with the election model code of conduct in place till June 6, the government could not take up transfer pleas. Post election results, there has been tremendous pressure to effect transfer of officials.

It may be recalled that last year, there was a slew of transfers with some departments exceeding the 6-8 per cent norm, and even breaching 20-25 per cent. It had dented the image of the government, with allegations that the transfers had been done for financial gains.

Union Steel Minister HD Kumaraswamy had in July 2023 brandished a pen drive which he alleged contained details of the transfer scam. He claimed that some ministers had received up to Rs 10 crore per transfer in the energy department. One particular officer had got a staggering Rs 50 lakh per day and many people had benefited from the transfers, he had claimed.

A TNIE probe had revealed that a handful of influential persons, including some ministers, had later met Kumaraswamy and requested him not to reveal the contents of the pen drive.

Everyone living in K'taka must speak Kannada: CM

CHIEF minister Siddaramaiah on Thursday laid the foundation for the installation of a 25-ft statue of Goddess Bhuvaneshwari in the Vidhana Soudha premises. He said the work on the installation will be ready by November 1 this year, and urged those who live in Karnataka to learn the Kannada language and respect it.

Siddaramaiah said that in Karnataka, people revere Goddess Bhuvaneshwari. The statue will be installed at the west gate of the Vidhana Soudha, and will be made of copper. The Department of Kannada and Culture has taken up this initiative.

Speaking to reporters, Siddaramaiah said it is the responsibility of all Kannadigas to safeguard the Kannada language, and the land and water of the state. He said every Kannadiga should begin speaking in Kannada with others. "Kannadigas are large-hearted people. That is why non-Kannadigas and people speaking other languages are not learning Kannada. If you go to Tamil Nadu, Kerala or Andhra Pradesh, people there speak in the local language, unlike people in Karnataka. We need to communicate with others in Kannada. This should actually be a matter of pride, and one need not feel inferior while speaking in our language," he said.

Further, the CM suggested that everyone living in Karnataka must learn to speak the state language. "We need to learn to appreciate our language, and respect our land and water," he added.

Siddaramaiah directed officials to complete the work on the statue before November 1. "Work has started and there is no dearth of funds in the state. This statue will be an added attraction to people. We have installed statues of many political leaders in the Vidhana Soudha premises," he said.

The CM said that on November 1, 2023, the state completed 50 years of renaming Karnataka, when the government decided to celebrate the event for a year. This will culminate on November 1, 2024, when the Goddess Bhuvaneshwari statue will be unveiled.

Around 6 pm, about 19 bodies were cremated along the banks of Gomuki river. Bodies of 10 others were cremated at other crematoriums. More than 2,000 police personnel drawn from various districts have been deployed across the district.

Mahesh Kumar Aggarwal, ADGP, Crime, Chennai, holding full additional charge as ADGP, Enforcement Bureau CID, and SR Senthil Kumar, SP, Enforcement, Chennai zone, were transferred out of their posts and asked to report at the office of the Head of Police Force, Chennai.

AIADMK leader Edappadi K Palaniswami has urged the CM to take responsibility for the tragedy and resign from the post. The opposition party will hold a statewide protest on June 24 demanding that the CM step down taking moral responsibility for the tragedy. Tamil Nadu BJP president K Annamalai has announced a statewide protest on June 22 over the 'incompetence' of the DMK government. The AIADMK has filed a PIL in the Madras High Court seeking a CBI probe into the tragedy. The court would take up the matter on Friday. Andhra ryot forced to put young sons to work

CP VENUGOPAL @ Anantapur

Karthik & Rana Pratap, studying in Class 12 and Class 9 respectively, helping their father | EXPRESS

THE image of two young boys helping their father till a piece of land under the scorching sun in Anantapur district starkly reflects the sorry state of farmers in the region.

After the death of his only ox, Boya Sarddanappa, a native of Nuthimadug village in Kamabadoor mandal, was forced to put his sons to work in his field for cultivating tomatoes. He could not hire help due to non-availability of labour. Even if he could, paying them would have been burdensome considering the drought last year significantly hampered the farmer's yield and profits.

Over the past few years, the failure of crops, particularly groundnut, due to irregular rains has brought losses to farmers. Even when the harvest was good, the profit margin was insignificant. Rising labour costs and non-availability of farm hands have added to the woes of the farmers, more so small and marginal farmers. With rising input costs, farmers' debts have also surged.

Sarddanappa and his brothers own five acres of land. He sunk a borewell and with the little water he could get, he cultivated different crops only to suffer losses. With no other option, he was forced to take debts to support his family. A few years ago, he met with an accident, following which he could not do heavy manual work. Hence, he had to depend on his family to help him in the field.

The farmer purchased two cows and an ox for dairy and farm work. Unfortunately, the ox and one cow died. He had to sell the other cow to clear his debts as money lenders had been pressuring him to pay back.

Expressing his helplessness, the farmer rued, "I don't have any other go, but to depend on my sons. Farming is the only way I can support my family. A few years ago, my leg was fractured in an accident, leaving me incapable of doing heavy work."

GOVT MUST UPGRADE NTA INFRA, ACT SWIFTLY AGAINST DELINQUENTS

THE controversy surrounding the conduct of the National Eligibility Cum Entrance Test-Undergraduate (NEET-UG) examination by the government-controlled National Testing Agency (NTA) and the cancellation of University Grants Commission's National Eligibility Test have brought into focus grave systemic flaws and threatens to undermine the credibility of the education system. After initially denying any wrongdoing, the government has admitted the lapses brought to light by the aspirants. Union education minister Dharmendra Pradhan has said that "some irregularities" have been found and has promised strict action against those responsible.

The NTA is responsible for conducting crucial examinations such as the JEE, NEET, UGC-NET and CMAT. There have been problems galore in the way they have been conducted over the last few years. At the 2019 NEET exams, students complained of ambiguous and erroneous questions. The NTA had to release a revised answer key after admitting to some mistakes. At the 2020 JEE Main exams, the NTA faced technical glitches. In 2020, the UGC-NET aspirants found errors in the question papers and answer keys. The NTA admitted to the mistakes and revised the answer keys. Similar problems were faced at the CUET 2022 exams. There have also been allegations of leaks of questions and answer keys, and incorrect translation of questions from English to regional languages. Students have also faced the issues of last-minute changes in exam centres, delays in the release of admit cards and technical glitches. The harried student community has time and again demanded re-evaluation and re-tests and resorted to legal action. However, they have continued to face problems in these high-stakes exams.

The government needs to urgently step in to ensure proper functioning of the NTA. It needs to undertake a massive upgrade of the NTA's technological infrastructure and put in place robust security measures to avoid paper leaks. There is also a need for regular stakeholder engagement to identify areas of improvement in order to restore the credibility of the NTA examination system, which affects millions of students. Swift and strict action against those involved in indiscretions and paper leaks should precede the structural upgrade. The Supreme Court has rightly said that even if there is "0.001 percent negligence" on part of the NTA, it should be thoroughly dealt with.

KANNUR SHOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO BLEED AGAIN

A 90-year-old man was recently killed in a blast in Kerala's Kannur district when he unwittingly tried to open a bomb he found in his neighbour's uninhabited plot. He had apparently gone there to collect coconuts when his eyes fell on the steel container. He suffered fatal injuries to his head and his hands were shattered by the blast. The police, who have started an investigation, say the blast was accidental. Though the bomb squad, which conducted a thorough inspection of the site, could not find any other bomb there, a few neighbours have alleged that the uninhabited plot has been used for criminal activities by political parties. They alleged that the police usually arrive at the scene of an explosion only after party workers have erased evidence and removed the crude bombs. Similar allegations have been raised by the Congress-led opposition—they staged a walkout in the assembly condemning the "cult of crude bomb violence" in Kannur.

It's not the first time that innocent people are getting caught in the state's political bomb culture. Amavasi, a rag-picker from Tamil Nadu, was injured in an accidental blast in Kannur in October 1998; he lost sight in one eye as a result. In September 2000, Asna, a girl who was playing in her house compound, lost a leg to a bomb blast. In all such incidents, innocents have lost life or limb without having anything to do with politics.

Violence is embedded in Kannur politics and no party is free of it—with the CPI(M) on one side, and the RSS, Congress and the IUML on the other. All parties have had 'martyrs' who are celebrated at political functions. The culture of violence can be brought down only if this political narrative is rephrased. And for this, all parties must come together. They should decide not to let Kannur bleed again. The CPI(M), being the ruling party, has more responsibility to ensure it. The government must ensure a detailed probe into the matter and the culprits must be brought to book for killing an elderly person in such a brutal manner. Kannur has been bleeding for quite a long time—it is time to put an end to it.

QUICK TAKE

MANGROVES AS BIO-SHIELDS

HURRICANES along our eastern coast are likely to be more frequent and, at times, more intense than earlier. We also know that the oceans around India are rising—almost imperceptibly, but to devastating consequences. So it's reason to be thankful when a plan to restore mangroves—which is one of the most effective ways of minimising the impact of these changes—comes to fruition. As a recent post by a bureaucrat showed, mangroves planted over 25 hectares at Kudikadu village in Tamil Nadu's Cuddalore district have come to life. The Pichavaram mangroves support 840 species of flora and fauna. It's a project worth emulating all along the coast, right up to the Sundarbans.

The three bills were rushed through parliament without an informed debate. The new Lok Sabha must be allowed to scrutinise them before they come into force

NEW CRIMINAL LAWS MUST GO THROUGH PARLIAMENT AGAIN

MANISH TEWARI

Lawyer, MP and former Union minister

THE recently held Lok Sabha elections were an eloquent testimony to the unwavering wisdom of the Indian electorate. Defying predictions and pundits alike and notwithstanding a repeat of government, the mandate of the sovereign has delivered a resounding message: we, the sovereign, will not tolerate the erosion of our civil liberties. We will raise our voice, loud and clear, against any law passed in defiance of this cardinal democratic principle that forms the bedrock of our nation.

Given this unequivocal fiat by the people, it is imperative that the latest iteration of the 'old establishment' must act accordingly. It therefore is necessary to have an immediate cessation on the implementation of the three controversial criminal law bills that are scheduled to come into effect from July 1, 2024.

For these bills, shrouded in contention and passed in undue haste after suspending a record 146 members of parliament, must be re-subjected to rigorous legislative scrutiny and informed debate in the newly constituted Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha. This is fundamental to respecting the democratic processes and ensuring that the laws of our nation reflect the will of its citizens through the informed participation of its political representatives.

Before addressing the three contentious bills in detail, it is imperative to provide some historical context. On August 11, 2023, the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) Bill, Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) Bill, and Bharatiya Sakshya Bill (BSB) were introduced in the monsoon session of parliament without adequate notice, denying the opposition the opportunity to object to their introduction.

Though the bills were referred to the parliamentary standing committee on home affairs, the informed dissent of many eminent members of the committee was not taken into consideration.

Finally, while the House was grappling with an unprecedented attack on its chambers and the opposition was raising concerns regarding the incident, 146 members of parliament were arbitrarily suspended, allowing the bills to be passed without opposition or even a semblance of an informed critique of its provisions. Currently, the Ministry of Home Affairs has notified that the three criminal law bills will be implemented on July 1, 2024.

These three criminal laws lack any substantial merit or any modicum of originality. Out of the 511 provisions in the IPC, only 24 sections have been deleted and 23 added. The rest have been merely renumbered in the new BNS. All 170 sections of the Evidence Act have been retained in the new BSB. Some 95 percent of the CrPC has been cut, copied and pasted as the new BNSS. As a result, it systematically overhauls the foundational laws of the criminal justice system without offering anything substantial by way of reform.

SOURAV ROY

Second, Section 173(3) of the BNSS shall make the registration of an FIR discretionary for an offence where the punishment ranges from 3 to 7 years. This disproportionately harms marginalised groups, who may be unable to get even FIRs registered.

Third, Section 187(3) of the BNSS introduces the troubling provision that allows the police to request custody for up to 15 days at any point during a 60-90 day custody period, even if the accused has cleared the triple test for bail. This effectively hinders the accused's ability to secure bail and can prolong their detention significantly. The provision raises concerns about arbitrary detention, potential abuse of power, and the undue burden placed on those facing charges under the new law.

Fourth, Section 43(3) of the BNSS brings back handcuffs. Despite the Supreme Court rulings in Sunil Batra vs Delhi Administration and the Prem Shukla case, which restrict the use of handcuffs, the new law expands police power in this regard, potentially violating the right to human dignity for accused individuals.

Fifth, the new law rebrands sedition through Section 152 of the BNS. This criminalises four kinds of activities: subversive activities, secession, separatist activity endangering the sovereignty, unity and integrity of India, and armed rebellion. There is, however, no finely-honed legal definition of these terms. It would provide wide latitude to the police and political establishment to persecute anyone without restraint and accountability.

Sixth, Section 113 of the BNS incorporates terrorism, which was already defined under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act . This duplication creates two laws addressing the same offence, raising concerns about potential misuse of the BNS as a tool for intimidation.

Seventh, the new laws add three more capital punishments and six life sentences despite the Law Commission's recommendations to abolish capital punishment and the Supreme Court's guidelines to hand down capital punishment in only the 'rarest of rare cases'.

Finally, if implemented, these three laws will create two parallel legal regimes. This will not only cause ambiguity but also exacerbate the existing backlog of cases. According to the National Judicial Data Grid, approximately 3.4 crore cases are pending in India's criminal justice system, already overburdening the existing infrastructure. The implementation of the new bills would further strain the nation's already creaky judicial system that is underpinned by an extremely tardy physical infrastructure.

For over a century and a half, thousands of judges from the subordinate judiciary to the Supreme Court have applied the existing laws assisted by over 15 lakh lawyers, a bulk of whom practice on the criminal side. This has created a vast body of criminal jurisprudence well known to common citizens in the remotest part of the country. The new laws are therefore unnecessarily and deleteriously disruptionist in their very conception.

There is no denying that India's criminal justice infrastructure is in dire need of reform. However, the proposed bills, rather than addressing the existing lacuna, only serve to exacerbate them. The creation of parallel legal regimes, increased ambiguity, and a potential surge in case backlog are just a few concerns of the new bills.

It is imperative for the government to suspend the implementation of these bills and reintroduce them in parliament for a thorough discussion and deliberations in a truly democratic manner. Only through such a process can we ensure that reforms to our criminal justice system are comprehensive, effective and uphold the cardinal principles of natural justice, equity, fairness and transparency.

IS THIS THE BEGINNING OF PETRODOLLAR'S END?

KAJAL BASU

Veteran journalist

ON June 9, there was a rash of reports that Saudi Arabia would not be renewing its 50-year-old petrodollar agreement with the US. Thus ended an extended period when the US dollar pretty much had a free run of one of the most valuable traded items in the world. This is how it all began.

"It was July 1974. ... An embargo by OPEC's Arab nations—payback for US military aid to the Israelis during the Yom Kippur War—quadrupled oil prices. Inflation soared, the stock market crashed, and the US economy was in a tailspin," wrote Andrea Wong in The New York Times decades later.

Just three years earlier, in August 1971, US President Richard Nixon had unilaterally torpedoed the gold standard. By 1973, free-floating fiat currencies had replaced the Bretton Woods system, to set up which Roosevelt had got 44 Allied countries to install the US dollar as the new 'good as gold' standard in 1945. In June 1974, Nixon brought into existence the US-Saudi Arabian Joint Commission on Economic Cooperation, which would denominate oil sales in dollars in exchange for US weapons and protection to the Saudi kingdom.

The week after the agreement, Nixon went on a trip of the Middle East, including Saudi Arabia. In July, the US Treasury secretary took a two-week tour of "economic diplomacy" to the Middle East. The idea, wrote Wong, was to "neutralise crude oil as an economic weapon and find a way to persuade a hostile kingdom to finance America's widening deficit with its newfound petrodollar wealth". In July, Saudi Arabia decided to invest its oil dollars in US Treasuries—a fact that was kept confidential until 2016.

This was pure econopolitik. The fourth Arab-Israeli conflict had broken out in October 1973. By December 1973, oil prices shot up 300 percent. The Organization of Arab Petroleum Exporting Countries, a part of OPEC, declared an embargo against the US for overfriendliness with Israel. The effects of this were felt Americawide: in 1974, daylight savings time went into effect and the national speed limit was lowered to 55 mph to conserve fuel.

The US-Saudi understanding snowballed. By 1975, all of OPEC agreed to sell oil in dollars in exchange for weapons and military assistance. The agreement was for five years, but was reiterated down the years. The petrodollar has ruled mightily since, despite the dollar itself suffering 537 percent inflation between 1974 and 2024.

"The international monetary system is facing its most difficult period since the 1930s," wrote H Johannes Witteveen, IMF managing director, in January 1974. It was in the light of these developments that the US-Saudi agreement came to pass.

The dollar's perkiness was paralleled by massive payment imbalances, especially in the debts of oil-importing nations. In

X.COM

In 1974, Richard Nixon agreed with Saudi king Faisal that in return for denominating the kingdom's oil sales in dollars, the US would provide weapons and protection. That deal was not officially renewed earlier this month. The effect on the dollar's dominance could be immense 1973-77, the foreign debt of 100 developing countries increased 150 percent. The European countries instituted their own stabilising strategy. In 1972, the European Economic Community introduced the hyperconnected 'European snake', with countries controlling their currencies from fluctuating more than a percent from an agreed exchange rate. The 'snake' presaged the 1979 European Monetary System, and was ranged against the dollar.

The value of the dollar has never not sunk despite attempts by the US, German, Japanese and even OPEC to maintain a holding pattern. In 1979, many investors, including Saudi Arabia, began disholding US dollars as reserves, parking their surplus in alternative reserve currencies like the Deutschemark, the Japanese yen, and the Swiss franc.

Indeed, the very day after the anniversary of the agreement passed without the two sides renewing it, the dollar's defenders were out in force trying to argue, first, that there had never been a US-Saudi petrodollar deal; second, that if there had been, it had not been comprehensive; and, third, that the dollar-denying news was a product of 'crypto speculators'. It hadn't, of course: the agreement has clearly not been renewed.

Saudi Arabia's move to unclip its oil revenues from the dollar might have been sudden, but it wasn't without warning. In March 2022, The Wall Street Journal reported: "Saudi Arabia is in active talks with Beijing to price some of its oil sales to China in yuan, people familiar with the matter said, a move that would dent the US dollar's dominance of the global petroleum market...." In January 2023, Saudi Arabia indicated that it would explore payment in other currencies. In April 2023, Nigel Green, founder and CEO of the deVere Group, one of the world's largest financial advisory and asset management companies, said, "Separately, two deals... would see Saudi Arabia's Aramco supplying two Chinese companies with a combined 690,000 barrels a day of crude oil, bolstering its rank as China's top provider of the commodity. It has been reported that Saudi Arabia is also in talks with Beijing to settle with the yuan instead of the dollar." Last year, China and Saudi Arabia signed a $7-billion local currency swap agreement in efforts to boost trade reducing their dollar reliance.

The dollar's share in the world's foreign exchange reserves has decreased from more than 70 percent in 2000 to about 55 per cent in the last quarter of 2023, after exchange-rate and interest-rate adjustments. As of November 2023, the dollar's share in global payments was 47.08 percent. Its anticipated drop further into this year is expected to be led by the Saudi de-petrodollarisation.

Immediate action

Due to the inefficiency of the National Testing Agency, NEET exam deviation, NCET exam postponement, NET exam cancellation, etc, the future of students is being pushed into darkness. Immediate action should be taken against the guilty, and the future of students should be secured. The authorities must ensure such incidents do not recur in the future.

Ruining futures

It is unfortunate the NTA, the organiser and conductor of NEET, is ruining the future of students in so many ways, right from the beginning to the timing of declaring the results. It is alarming that the authorities are lethargic on the issue. The culprits should be served with severe punishments to prevent recurrence of such cruelties in the future.

Paper leak

Rahul Gandhi said that during his Bharat Jodo Nyay Yatra, thousands of students lamented about paper leaks. He said it started with Vyapam in Madhya Pradesh, and spread to Gujarat and Uttar Pradesh.

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

AMID a raging controversy on the NEET-UG paper leak scandal, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Thursday slammed Prime Minister Narendra Modi for being silent on the issue.

Addressing the media over the alleged irregularities in NEET-UG and cancellation of UGC-NET exams, Gandhi, taking a swipe at the PM, said, "It was being said that Prime Minister Modi stopped the Ukraine-Russia War and Israel-Gaza war, but he is either not able to stop the exam paper leaks or he doesn't want to."

Gandhi said Modi has "psychologically collapsed" post-elections and will struggle to run a government like this. "The silence is because the PM is 'crippled'. Right now, his agenda is the Speaker. He is not bothered about the NEET. He wants his government to survive through and the NDA to get the Speaker's post. That's where his mind is right now," the Congress MP said.

Gandhi announced that the Opposition will not let the government off the hook on this crucial matter and the responsibility will have to be fixed and the guilty punished.

He alleged that the repeated and regular paper leaks are the result of the institutional capture by the BJP and its parent organisation. He said the entire education system has been destroyed by the BJP by inducting people on their ideological affiliations and not based on merit. "Till this is not reversed, it will continue," he said.

Ministry orders probe into NTA 'irregularities'

Despite no direct complaints post cancellation of UGC-NET or against the NTA, proactive measures were taken to safeguard student interests based on available information

Govind Jaiswal, Joint Secretary, Education Ministry

Prompting serious questions

The role of NTA is under deep internal investigation, with the education minister's decision to form a comprehensive probe committee. The cancellation of the UGC-NET examination has raised questions about the NTA's handling of alegations of consecutive question paper leakage.

KETAN NAROTTAM TANNA @ New Delhi

THE Ministry of Education is investigating the alleged irregularities at the National Testing Agency (NTA). NTA Director General Subodh Kumar on Thursday met with Higher Education Secretary K Sanjay Murthy at Shastri Bhawan to discuss the cancellation of the UGC-NET exam. Sources indicate that a corruption probe may be initiated against organised gangs in Bihar, with assistance from the Patna police and scrutiny of a few NTA officers.

The role of NTA is under deep internal investigation, with the education minister's decision to form a comprehensive probe committee encompassing various aspects. Inputs from the home ministry and police officials are crucial in this matter. The cancellation of the UGC-NET exam has raised questions about the NTA's handling of consecutive paper leakage allegations.

Additionally, the role of the dark web and Telegram groups will be probed. Sources indicate that Telegram is challenging to crack due to its server-client encryption in Cloud Chats (private and group chats). Secret Chats use an additional layer of client-client encryption. All data, regardless of type, is encrypted uniformly in Telegram channels. It was on Telegram that an NET paper leak came to the notice of the National Cyber Crime Threat Analytics Unit of the Indian Cyber Crime Coordination Centre (I4C) under the Ministry of Home Affairs.

"Despite no direct complaints post cancellation of UGC-NET or against the NTA, proactive measures were taken to safeguard student interests based on available information," said Govind Jaiswal, Joint Secretary of the Education Ministry. He assured that a revised exam schedule would be announced soon.

Members of various students' unions protest outside Shastri Bhawan in New Delhi on Thursday | EXPRESS

Student bodies take to the streets, several detained

UJWAL JALALI @ New Delhi

HUNDREDS of students from different outfits staged protests outside the residence of Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan and the education ministry office on Thursday over alleged NEET irregularities and the cancellation of UGC-NET.

The student bodies claimed that over a hundred protesters were detained by the police. Visuals from the scene shared on social media showed students allegedly being dragged and shoved into buses by the police. Police denied they manhandled anyone.

Members of SFI, AISA, Democratic Students' Front (DSF), Krantikari Yuva Sangathan (KYS), and Congress-affiliated NSUI participated in the protest. RSS-affiliated Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad (ABVP) also staged protest on Delhi University's north campus and the Jawaharlal Nehru University. They burned an effigy of the National Testing Agency (NTA) demanding probe into the matter.

Protesters outside the education ministry and Pradhan's residence demanded a ban on the NTA. During the protest, NSUI national president Varun Choudhary flung a bag full of counterfeit currency in the air in a symbolic act of corruption and demanded an urgent probe into the matter.

"Female students were heckled and manhandled brutally," said the SFI. A police officer, however, said, "No one was assaulted. They had not taken the permission to protest in the high security area, which remains under section 144. They were released late evening."

"Now UGC NET has been cancelled due to paper leak... NTA has failed students time and again. We demand a complete scrapping of NTA," AISA unit of JNU said. The outfits also demanded Pradhan's resignation.

Bihar DyCM points at Tejashwi close aide...

Bihar Deputy CM alleged that Pritam used the word 'mantri ji', allegedly referring to Tejashwi, during his conversation with Pradip while booking the room.

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

BIHAR deputy chief minister and senior BJP leader Vijay Kumar Sinha on Thursday stirred up a controversy by linking RJD leader Tejashwi Prasad Yadav with the alleged NEET-UG 2024 paper leak, claiming that Tejashwi's aide booked a room at a government guest house for one of the key accused of the case.

Asking Tejashwi to clarify his position in the NEET-UG paper leak, Sinha told media that Tejashwi's aide Pritam Kumar had allegedly booked a room for the main accused, Sikander Kumar Yadavendu, at the National Highways Authority of India's (NHAI) guest house in the state capital.

However, the NHAI issued a clarification on Thursday on the paper leak, saying that its authorities did not have any guest house facility in Patna, as claimed by the police.

Sinha claimed that Pritam Kumar, who served as Tejashwi's personal secretary when he was the deputy chief minister, on May 1 and 4 contacted an employee of the Bihar Road Construction Department (RCD) named Pradip Kumar to book a room for Yadavendu, a junior engineer employed by the Danapur Nagar Parishad. He is also an accused in the NEET-UG paper leak.

He alleged that Pritam used the word 'mantri ji' while allegedly referring to Tejashwi during his conversation with Pradip while booking the room. The RCD was held by Tejashwi in Grand Alliance government.

"Tejashwi should clarify whether Pritam is still his personal secretary. He should also clarify who Yadavendu is. When RJD chief Lalu Prasad was serving a jail term at Ranchi in Jharkhand, Yadavendu used to be at Lalu's service. He was a junior engineer in the state irrigation department," Sinha remarked.

Sinha also showed purported text messages sent to Pradip by Yadvendu to book the room.

... RJD retorts: 'Govt trying to save big faces'

Main focus

Taking a jibe at Sinha's claims, RJD leader Manoj Jha said they are not worried about the students' future, but concerned about making allegations to shield the main accused.

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

THE RJD reacted sharply to Bihar deputy CM Vijay Kumar Sinha's allegation that Tejashwi Prasad Yadav's close aide was linked to NEET-UG 2024 paper leak. RJD Rajya Sabha member Manoj Jha termed it "fake."

Jha told the media that the question was who booked the guest house in Bihar to facilitate the candidates and others ahead of the examination.

Taking a jibe at Sinha's accusations against the RJD leader, Jha said they are not worried about the future of lakhs of students who took exams, but they were more concerned about making false allegations to shield the main accused.

"You are telling false stories to save the accused. I want to make it clear that the whole story is a part of the conspiracy hatched to defame a government employee because the big faces in the NEET scam have to be saved," he said.

"It is about the future of nearly 25 lakh children. Don't entangle it in the false story of the guest house. The truth must prevail," Jha said.

Jha also demanded the resignation of Union education minister Dharmendra Pradhan over the NEET controversy and said that the National Testing Agency (NTA), which conducts the examination, should also be abolished.

On the other hand, Tejashwi Yadav preferred to skip the media queries. Repeated efforts to contact Yadav over the phone proved futile.

"Tejashwi ji is busy in some other important work. Give your mobile number. We will connect you whenever he gets free," said the man who picked up the call on the other side.

Sources said the leader of the Opposition was avoiding media for obvious reasons. "Everyone knows about his close contact with Sikandar Prasad Yadavendu. There is no need to elaborate it," said an NDA functionary.

Indian Railways ensuring safety at level crossings with infra upgrades

VISHWESH CHAUBE
Former member (Engineering), Railway Board

INDIAN Railways is waging an unprecedented war against one of the biggest threats to rail safety — level crossings. Through an astounding nationwide project, the Railways aims to construct a staggering three Road Overbridges (ROBs) or Road Underbridges (RUBs) every single day. This massive infrastructure overhaul tackles head-on the notorious dangers of level crossings that have plagued the rail network for decades.

A decade ago, the statistics were nothing short of alarming. Between 2004 and 2014, a staggering 596 accidents occurred at level crossings across India, resulting in a horrifying 1,439 fatalities. But a transformation has been set in motion. In the fiscal year 2023-24 alone, not a single accident was reported at level crossings — a monumental zero fatality rate achieved through the Railways' robust drive to eliminate these perilous intersections.

The first phase saw all unmanned level crossings being converted to manned ones, immediately enhancing safety vigil. From 2019 to 2023, this proactive measure restricted level crossing accidents to just four incidents with nine fatalities. Compare that to the 1,439 lives lost in the preceding decade and the impact is undeniable.

INDIAN RAILWAYS HAS A BIGGER VISION — TO ENTIRELY ERADICATE LEVEL CROSSINGS THROUGH AN UNPRECEDENTED NATION-BUILDING EFFORT. WITHIN ONE YEAR, A WHOPPING 1,078 ROBs AND RUBs WILL BE CONSTRUCTED

But Indian Railways has an even bigger vision — to entirely eradicate level crossings themselves through an unprecedented nation-building effort. Within just one year, a whopping 1,078 ROBs and RUBs will be constructed, paving the way for seamless segregation of rail and road traffic at these conflict points. This is merely the start. Ultimately, 17,083 such crossings across the vast Indian Railways network will be eliminated in the years ahead.

The transformative impact can already be witnessed. While only 415 ROBs and RUBs were built from 2004 to 2014, the following decade from 2014 to 2024 has seen 1,195 such modern structures spring up, enhancing both rail and road connectivity across cities and towns.

This level crossing revamp is not just about statistics — it's about safeguarding precious human lives. As trains grow faster and roads more congested, allowing intersections of these transport modes is a risk Indian Railways can no longer afford to take. Every ROB and RUB built is a potential tragedy averted, a family kept intact, a life secured for the future.

Funding this mammoth initiative is a continuous endeavor, with Railways mobilising resources to ensure financial backing for these critical safety projects. Except for level crossings at National Highway corridors, the Railways primarily bears the cost for this upgrade.

Indian Railways' war on level crossings through this infrastructure overhaul is proof of its commitment to prioritising rail safety. As India's rail network expands and modernises, eliminating these dangerous intersections is fundamental to achieving a future-ready, accident-free ecosystem for passenger and freight transport.

EAM, Wickremesinghe talk on power, energy, port

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

A Maritime Rescue Coordination Centre (MRCC) was commissioned in Colombo on Thursday in the presence of External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar and Sri Lankan President Ranil Wickremesinghe. "We virtually commissioned the MRCC and also virtually handed over 154 houses under the Government of India's housing schemes in Sri Lanka," said Jaishankar.

The MRCC has been developed under a $6 million grant from India. The projects developed under the grant include a centre at navy headquarters in Colombo, a sub-centre in Hambantota, and unmanned installations at Galle, Arugambay, Batticaloa, Trincomalee, Kallarawa, Point Pedro and Mollikulam.

In his meeting with Wickremesinghe, Jaishankar discussed the way forward for cooperation in power, energy, port infrastructure, aviation and tourism, among other sectors.

"I conveyed wishes on behalf of PM Modi and also reaffirmed that we are committed to working for the steady development of our traditionally close and friendly ties," said Jaishankar.

He also met his counterpart Ali Sabry and spoke about capacity building and shared agreements between the two nations.

Jaishankar also called on Prime Minister Dinesh Gunawardena. "We are confident that our development assistance and capacity building programmes will keep delivering for the aspirations of Sri Lankans," the foreign minister said.

BJP's Bhartruhari Mahtab named pro-tem Speaker, Cong says seniority ignored

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

PRESIDENT Droupadi Murmu on Thursday appointed Odisha BJP leader Bhartruhari Mahtab as the pro-tem Speaker, who would perform the duties of the Speaker till the election for the post is over.

The appointment evoked sharp reactions from the Congress party, which pointed out that senior Congress leader Kodikunnil Suresh, being the seniormost MP who has served the maximum terms, was qualified for the post.

Calling it another attempt to destroy parliamentary norms, Congress general secretary KC Venugopal said that the government should explain why it chose to overlook Suresh.

"Bhartruhari Mahtab (a 7-term MP) has been appointed the pro-tem Speaker, superseding Kodikunnil Suresh, who will be entering his eighth term. It is an unquestioned norm that the seniormost MP presides over the proceedings of the House before the Speaker is duly elected," he wrote on X.

He further said the government should explain the factor that disqualified him from this post. "Are there deeper issues influencing this decision, perhaps beyond just merit and seniority?" he asked.

The President has appointed MPs Suresh Kodikunnil, Thalikkottai Rajuthevar Baalu, Radha Mohan Singh, Faggan Singh Kulaste and Sudip Bandyopadhyay to assist pro-tem Speaker, Union minister Kiren Rijiju announced in a post on X. The first session of the 18th Lok Sabha will meet from June 24 to July 3 and the election for the Speaker post is scheduled for June 26. By convention, the post goes to the seniormost MP.

"By convention, the MP who has served the maximum terms is appointed pro-tem Speaker for the first two days when oath is administered to all newly elected MPs. The seniormost MPs in the 18th Lok Sabha are K Suresh (INC) and Virendra Kumar (BJP), both of who are now serving their 8th term. Kumar is now a Union minister, and hence it was expected that Suresh would be the pro-tem Speaker. Mahtab was a BJD MP for six terms and is now a BJP MP," said Ramesh.

J&K poll process has begun, says PM

Asserts that walls of Article 370 have been brought down and Constitution implemented

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

IN his first visit to Jammu and Kashmir after securing power for the third time, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday hinted at holding of Assembly elections and restoration of statehood to J&K Union Territory and asserted that walls of Article 370 have been brought down and Constitution implemented in true spirit in the region.

He said no stone would be left unturned to teach a lesson to enemies of J&K and asserted they are making efforts to remove distances whether of the heart or of Delhi ('Dil ya Dilli').

"I am delighted that today we are living the Constitution of India. Through the Constitution, we are finding new ways to change the face of Kashmir for good," he said while addressing 'Empowering Youth, Transforming J&K' programme at SKICC on banks of Dal Lake in Srinagar after his arrival on a two-day visit to Kashmir. He said the Constitution has finally been adopted by J&K in the true sense.

On August 9, 2019, the Centre scrapped Articles 370 and 35A and bifurcated J&K state into two Union Territories.

Praising the people of J&K for record voter turnout in the recent Lok Sabha elections, the PM said, "We are witnessing Vajpayee's vision of Insaniyat, Jamhooriyat aur Kashmiriyat turning into a reality today. I have come to express my thanks for your efforts for keeping the flag of democracy high."

About 7,000 people, including government staff and school kids, are likely to participate in the event.

He announced that preparations for assembly elections in J&K have started.

"The day is not far when you will select the new government with your own vote. What can be better than J&K people selecting their representatives and tackling their problems through them."

J&K is under Central rule since collapse of the PDP-BJP government in June 2018.

"I am devoted myself with full dedication and honesty to ensure that a way out of the past generation's miseries may be found. We are making all possible efforts to remove all distances whether of the heart or of Delhi (Dil ya Dilli)," Modi said and emphasised the need for collective efforts to ensure that the fruits of democracy reach every family and person. "Every paisa of central assistance is spent on the welfare of the people of J&K.".

Hinting at restoration of statehood to J&K, PM said, "The day will come soon when J&K will shape its future as a state once again".

On the recent terror attacks in Jammu region, including attack on a bus in Reasi in which nine pilgrims were killed, the PM said that the government has taken serious note of the incidents and the home minister has reviewed secueity arrangements in collaboration with the J&K administration.

"I assure you that no stone will be left unturned to teach a lesson to the enemies of J&K. The new generation of J&K will live in permanent peace. We will strengthen the path of progress chosen by J&K," he said.

He cautioned people about enemies of peace who stand against the development. "This is their last-ditch effort to stop the development to ensure that peace is not established here. Kashmir is gradually emerging as a major hub of start-ups, skill development and sports."

Modi laid the foundation stone and inaugurated 84 major developmental projects worth over ₹1,500 crore. He also launched Competitiveness Improvement in Agriculture and Allied Sectors (JKCIP) project worth ₹1,800 crore.

Modi will participate in the 10th International Yoga Day event at SKICC in Srinagar at 6.30 am on Friday. About 7,000 people, including government staff and school kids, are likely to participate in the event.

Maha rift erupts as Sena blames Ajit for election defeat

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

THE Eknath Shinde-led Shiv Sena on Thursday said the BJP and Ajit Pawar-led NCP are responsible for the poor performance of Mahayuti in the Lok Sabha elections in Maharashtra, indicating a rift in the ruling alliance of the state.

Sena (Shinde) leader Ramdas Kadam said that BJP interfered in seat allocations and selection of candidates. "Due to BJP's interference, we lost Nasik, Hingoli and Wasim Lok Sabha seats. We hope that BJP will not make the same mistake in upcoming assembly elections," Kadam said.

He said there should not be injustice with the Shiv Sena (Shinde) in assembly elections. "We want at least 100 seats in assembly elections and I am confident that we will win 90 seats," the Sena leader said.

He said, "Had Ajit Pawar come to Mahayuti a little late Lok Sabha poll results would have been different." Reacting to Kadam's statement, NCP (Ajit) spokesperson Amol Mitkari said, "I wish to inform you that Ajit dada came on time to the alliance and the worse was prevented. Do not forget that you were saved because of dada's grace." This paper reached out to BJP leaders to get a response but did not get one immediately.

BJP down from 23 to 9

In the LS polls, Mahayuti won 17 seats and the opposition Maha Vikas Aghadi 31 seats. The count of BJP MPs went down from 23 in 2019 to nine. Sena (Shinde) won seven out of the 15 seats it contested. NCP (Ajit) contested four seats and won only one. Earlier, RSS mouthpiece pinned the blame on Ajit and his NCP for the Mahayuti debacle.

Strict measures for land purchase by outsiders

Following the tragic killing of local youth Ravi Badola in a land dispute involving shooters from western Uttar Pradesh, the Uttarakhand government has announced stringent measures regarding land purchases by outsiders. Under the new regulations, outsiders seeking to buy land in Uttarakhand will undergo thorough scrutiny. They are required to submit comprehensive details in a prescribed declaration form, including the purpose of land acquisition and disclosure of any criminal history linked to transaction. CM Dhami emphasized the necessity of understanding the background and intentions of prospective buyers.

3 Pak terrorists behind Reasi bus attack: Cops

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THREE Pakistani militants were involved in the June 9 attack on a passenger bus in Reasi district of Jammu and Kashmir in which nine people were killed and 43 others injured.

On June 9, when the pilgrim bus was attacked by militants, Hakam was with them and he waited till the militant firing stopped and then he helped them in escaping from the area, the SSP said. Raj govt hikes women's quota to 50% in teaching

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

ON completing six months in office, Rajasthan chief minister Bhajan Lal Sharma has announced two major decisions aimed at empowering women in the state.

The BJP government has decided to increase the reservation for women in Grade III teacher recruitment from 30% to 50%. There are over 270,000 posts for Grade III teachers in the state, with about 60,000 vacancies to be filled. This means if 60,000 teachers are recruited, 30,000 of these positions will now be reserved for women.

Secondly, a draft has been prepared to increase the number of women personnel in police recruitment. Currently, women constitute only 10% of the Rajasthan police department. The new draft recommends increasing the women's reservation in police recruitment from 30% to 33%.

The move has sparked opposition from male candidates. Protests began in Barmer on Wednesday and spread to Jaipur by Thursday. The Barmer Berojgar Sangh has demanded that no changes be made to the reservation policy until a caste census is conducted. Protesters in various districts have been seen holding placards reading, "Remove 50 percent women reservation."

Addressing the concerns of the youth, CM Sharma urged them to prepare for future opportunities. "Many vacancies are going to come in future. The youth of our state will not be disappointed," he assured. He said, "Self-reliant, empowered, and educated women are the identity of a progressive society."

Political experts suggest that Sharma is keen on garnering support from women voters.

Big catch: Drugs worth ₹150 cr seized from Gujarat's Kutch

MUKESH RANJAN /DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ New Delhi/Ahemedabad

THE Border Security Force (BSF) on Thursday seized narcotics worth ₹150 crore from the Sir Creek area of the Kutch region in Gujarat, officials said. Earlier this week BSF patrol parties had seized 120 drug packets in the same area.

The packets recovered on Thursday contain synthetic drugs, heroin, and cannabis.

A senior official at the BSF headquarters said, "For the past one month, almost every day there are reports of 10 to 20 packets of drugs being found on the beaches of Kutch."

Sources in the intelligence agencies said that it would not be surprising "if more drugs are found on the seashore in Kutch", because the cache of drugs thrown into the sea is sure to come towards the lower-line sea area with the waves.

"Drugs worth crores were recovered in August 2023," an official said. The intelligence sources attribute this trend to the drug mafia of Iran and Afghanistan. They said that since the off-shore patrolling by the Navy and the Coast Guard has been stepped up, possibilities are there that smugglers abandon their consignment in the seawater and the same reaches the coastline with waves.

In January this year, drugs worth crores of rupees were to be transported in a boat in the maritime area of Iran.

"When the boat reached the middle of the sea, the maritime security agency noticed it. The team of the security agency tried to go near the boat full of drugs. Seeing them nearing, the drug mafia threw the packets containing drugs worth crores from the boat into the sea," said a source in the intelligence agency, adding that it appeared that drug packets are gradually reaching the coastal area with the sea waves.

Last month, security agencies had recovered more than 250 packets of drugs from the West Kutch-Bhuj area, whose value in the international market was in crores. Recently, drugs have also been recovered along the seashores of Porbandar and Dwarka.

On Monday, Porbandar police recovered half a dozen packets of marijuana from the coastal village of Odadar. "Six packets containing 8.192 kg of marijuana (hashish), valued at ₹12 lakhs, were found near the harbour police station area on the Porbandar seashore," a police officer said.

Drugs valued at ₹16 crore were found abandoned along the coastal area of Varvala village in Devbhumi Dwarka district on June 14, police said. Indian agencies in February made their highest-ever narcotics bust from the sea as they seized 3,300 kg drugs, which sailed from an Iranian port.

HC strikes down Nitish govt's quota bump-up

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

IN a major setback to the Nitish Kumar-led Bihar government, the Patna High Court on Thursday set aside the state government's move to raise quotas for deprived classes from 50% 65%.

A Division Bench headed by Chief Justice K Vinod Chandran passed the order on a bunch of petitions that opposed the Bihar Reservation (for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, and Other Backward Classes) (Amendment) Act, 2023 and the Bihar (in admission in educational institutions) Reservation (Amendment) Act, 2023.

The bench, also comprising Justice Harish Kumar, set aside the amendments brought by the state government in November 2023 as ultra vires and being violative of equally under the Indian Constitution. The amendments had resulted in the reservation cap for government jobs and educational institutions touching 75% after adding 10% quota for the Economically Weaker Sections.

The amendments were based on the findings of a caste survey. Following the survey, the state government increased the quota for Scheduled Castes to 20%, Scheduled Tribes to 2%, Extremely Backward Classes to 25% and for Other Backward Classes to 18%.

The petitioners argued the hike in reservation by the state government was beyond its legislative powers. "The amendments are violative of the Supreme Court verdict passed in the case of Indira Sawney versus Union of India whereby a maximum ceiling of 50% was laid down. The quota hike was also discriminatory in nature and violative of the fundamental rights to equality and guaranteed to the citizens by Article 14, 15 and 16," they told the HC.

Reacting to the HC verdict, the BJP's Bihar unit chief and deputy chief minister Samrat Choudhary said the government would move the Supreme Court against the order.

Heatwave hits over 40,000, kills at least 110 since March, say officials

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

THE brutal heat wave sweeping large swathes of the country killed at least 110 people in the past three months and left around 40,000 people grappling with the effects of suspected heat stroke, Union health ministry sources said on Thursday. The figures emerged from the data received from states between March 1 and June 18. Of this, six deaths were recorded on June 18 alone, officials said.

They added that the numbers could go up as they were still assessing data on heat-related incidents submitted by states. They added that Uttar Pradesh is the worst affected, followed by Bihar, Rajasthan, and Odisha.

In a review meeting held on Wednesday, Union health minister J P Nadda had directed states and Union territories to submit data from all health facilities daily and flag suspected heat-related deaths. The direction came in the absence of official data on cases and deaths due to heat stroke in the country.

Nadda said he has issued directions to all hospitals to treat heat stroke-related cases on a priority basis. "I have also told officials to visit central hospitals and centrally-managed hospitals to see if separate arrangements have been made for heat wave-affected cases. I also urge the public to give special focus on liquid diet, and have more and more water to avoid dehydration," he said.

Following Nadda's directions, the Union health ministry issued an advisory to all states on 'Heat Wave Season 2024'. It asked states to investigate all heat-related cases and called for having cooling appliances in hospitals for the management of severe heat-related illnesses.

Online gaming cos may get GST relief

Sources say the govt is likely to cancel retrospective or backdated taxes for the industry

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

THE 53rd GST Council meeting, which is taking place after a gap of nearly nine months, is likely to be action-packed with decisions impacting businesses across sectors.

As per sources, online gaming companies may get major relief on Saturday. They believe the government might cancel retrospective or backdated taxes for the Indian online gaming industry. However, the current 28% tax rate is likely to stay the same, said sources.

"For online gaming companies, apart from the rate, the aspect of valuation needs deliberation. It is hoped that for the anti-profiteering provisions, there will be some announcements with respect to determination of methodology so that different sectors can determine the quantum of the profiteering", said Abhishek A Rastogi, founder of Rastogi Chambers, who is representing industry on these issues in different courts.

In addition, the government could introduce sunset clause for anti-profiteering provisions introduced at the time of GST implementation to prevent inflation and give benefit of reduced taxes to the customers. According to the sources, these provisions will likely be put to end in next two to three years.

"After almost seven years of GST implementation, ideally these provisions should now be withdrawn. Globally, these provisions have been introduced for a short term to avoid possibility of inflation at the time of transition only," said Pratik Jain, Partner with Price Waterhouse & Co LLP.

The Centre is likely to issue clarity around GST on corporate guarantee between related parties. The debate centers on determining taxable value considering the actual amount used by the beneficiary when the guaranteed amount surpasses the utilisation. The taxpayers await clarity on whether this adjustment should apply going forward or be applied to past transactions. In October, the Council declared that corporate guarantees for bank loans provided by the parent company to its subsidiary would be subject to an 18% tax rate.

Experts say industry would welcome if there is enabling provision under GST laws for the government to provide retrospective exemption in select cases, which was in existence under erstwhile excise laws.

The government may reduce the amount of pre-deposit to be paid for filing appeals in the appellate tribunal from 10% to 7% of the disputed tax or a maximum of ₹20 crore for CGST and SGST, and ₹40 crore for IGST.

GST rates on tobacco rates may be rationalised on Saturday. Currently, tobacco products attract the highest rate of 28% with additional cess.

After almost 7 years of GST implementation, ideally these provisions should now be withdrawn. Globally, these (anti-profiteering) provisions have been introduced for a short term to avoid possibility of inflation at the time of transition only

SEBI asks Religare to apply for open offer before July 12

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

CAPITAL market regulator SEBI has come down heavily on Religare Enterprises (REL) chairperson Rashmi Saluja and its board of directors for obstructing the Burman family from launching an open offer for acquiring a majority stake in the financial conglomerate.

The SEBI has observed that the current board of REL has failed to comply with the securities law and has directed the company to apply to the RBI, IRDAI, and SEBI before July 12. These applications are an integral part of processing an open offer launch. "While the acquirers (Burmans) have repeatedly followed up with the company (Religare) to obtain statutory approvals (failing which the open offer cannot proceed), the target company has steadfastly refused to co-operate and, in fact, has acted in an apparently hostile manner," said Sebi in a notice dated June 19.

It added, "The target company can't be allowed to impinge on the rights of the shareholders and their fate can't be left hanging in balance. However, since the target company, even after explicit advice from SEBI, has refused to take step for making applications to regulators for statutory approvals, SEBI is left with no other option but to issue urgent directions to the noticees to take appropriate steps in this regard."

Burman family of FMCG major Dabur had in September 2023 announced a ₹2,116 crore open offer to acquire up to 26% additional stake in the REL after its shareholding breached the 25% mark. Since the announcement was made, the Burmans and senior board members of Religare, led by Saluja, have levelled serious accusations against each other.

In January 2024, the Competition Commission of India (CCI) gave its nod to the Burmans for the follow-up open offer to take its holding to up to 53.94%. However, the open offer is yet to pass through.

REL failed to comply with securities law: SEBI

SEBI has observed that the current board of REL has failed to comply with securities law and has directed the company to apply to RBI, IRDAI, and SEBI before July 12. These applications are integral part of processing open offer launch. Burmans of Dabur had in Sept 2023 announced ₹2,116 crore open offer to acquire 26% stake in the REL

SEBI approves ₹5,500 cr IPO of electric 2-wheeler manufacturer Ola Electric

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

CAPITAL markets regulator SEBI (Securities and Exchange Board of India) has given green light to the country's largest electric two-wheeler maker - Ola Electric - for launching an initial public offering (IPO). This would be the first when an EV start-up will be listed on the bourses.

Ola Electric's IPO is a combination of a fresh issue of equity shares up to ₹5,500 crore and an offer for sale (OFS) of 9.52 crore equity shares by promoters and investors, as per draft red herring prospectus (DRHP) which was filed with SEBI in December 2023. The company will be aiming for a valuation of approximately $6 billion through its IPO.

The company's promoter Bhavish Aggarwal will offload 4.7 crore shares through the OFS in the IPO, which is 50% of the total OFS. SoftBank Vision Fund and Tiger Global, among other investors, will participate in the OFS. Ola Electric has exercised the option to raise ₹1,000 crore through the pre-IPO placement, and in that case, the fresh issue size will be reduced to that extent.

Ola Electric said they will be launching a slew of new products, including new electric motorcycles, in the coming financial year. "We expect to begin delivery of motorcycles in the first half of fiscal 2026…We plan to further expand our product portfolio to cover mass-market motorcycles, targeting a wider range of consumers across product types and price points in the long term," it said in the draft papers.

Currently, the SoftBank-backed company competes with Bajaj Auto and TVS Motor and three electric scooters - S1 Pro, S1 Air, and S1 X - in its portfolio. As per DHRP, proceeds from the fresh issue will be used for capex to be incurred by the subsidiary, OCT for the Ola Gigafactory project, payment of debt by subsidiary OET, investment into research and product development, expenditure for organic growth initiatives and general corporate purposes.

The company's revenue grew in FY23 to ₹2,630.9 crore as against just ₹373.4 crore in the previous fiscal. It, however, reported a loss of ₹1,472 crore in FY23 as against a loss of ₹784.1 crore in FY22. Sebi has also approved

Emcure Pharma gets SEBI nod for public issue

BENN KOCHUVEEDAN @ Mumbai

PUNE-based drug maker Emcure Pharmaceuticals has received the regulatory approvals to launch a ₹2,500 crore initial share sale, which is just half of what it originally planned in early 2023.

As per market sources, the issue comprises of ₹800 crore of fresh issue and ₹1,700 crore of offer for sale by existing shareholders including promoters wherein they will sell 13.7 million of shares. It is likely to be launched in the first week of July. In a statement on Thursday, the company said it has received SEBI nod for ₹800 crore IPO, but did not say when it will hit the market. Satish Ramanlal Mehta, and Sunil Rajanikant Mehta are the promoters selling shareholders in the OFS. Namita Vikas Thapar, Pushpa Rajnikant Mehta, Bhavana Satish Mehta, Kamini Sunil Mehta, BC Investments IV, Arunkumar Purshotamlal KhannaI, Berjis Minoo Desai, and Sonali Sanjay Mehta will also be selling shares. The SEBI issued observation letter on the IPO on June 10, as per the processing status of draft offer documents published by the regulator. Issuance of observation letter means the issuer can go ahead with its IPO.

It had filed preliminary papers with the regulator in December 2023 but they put it on the backburner after it faced a $900 million penalty call from the US courts. The firm that competes with Dr Reddy's Labs, Cipla, Alkem Labs, Torrent Pharma, Mankind Pharma, and Abbott India intends to utilise ₹640 crore of the net fresh issue proceeds to repay debt, and the remaining amount for general corporate purposes.

India slips to 15th among top FDI recipients in 2023

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

FOREIGN direct investment (FDI) in India during 2023 declined by 43% to $28 billion compared to $49 billion in the previous year, a report by UN Trade and Development showed. The sharp drop in FDI inflow resulted in India's rank among the top FDI recipients falling from 8th in 2022 to 15th in 2023.

According to UNCTAD, global foreign direct investment (FDI) in 2023 decreased marginally, by 2%, to $1.3 trillion. Among the top 20 host economies, the largest absolute drops were registered in France, Australia, China, the United States and India, in that order.

FDI in developing Asia fell by 8% to $621 billion. The US, China, Singapore and Hong Kong maintained their top four positions in terms of value of FDI received. The US received $311 billion in 2023 compared to $332 billion in 2022.

China received $163 billion in 2023 compared to $189 billion in the previous year. Of the top 15 recipients of FDI in 2023, more than half of them saw the inflow drop in 2023.

The report says that the global environment for international investment remains challenging in 2024. It says that weakening growth prospects, economic fracturing trends, trade and geopolitical tensions, industrial policies and supply chain diversification are reshaping FDI patterns, causing some multinational enterprises (MNEs) to adopt a cautious approach to overseas expansion.

Pre-budget meet: Fin sector seeks stable tax policy on capital gains, sec transactions

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

FINANCIAL industry leaders , in the second pre-budget meet held on Thursday, sought for stable and long-term tax policies on capital gains tax, shares transactions, and clarity on GST.

The suggestions included widening market access, providing tax incentives, and boosting fund allocations for NBFCs. Discussions touched on GST implications for loans and service charges, as well as strategies to maintain capital within the country, particularly in relation to GIFT City.

Arun Kohli, MD and country head of Morgan Stanley India, emphasised the importance of stable and long-term tax policies. Experts also shared insights on capital gains tax and taxes related to the purchase and sale of shares. George Alexander Muthoot, MD of Muthoot Group, highlighted the need for widening the market and providing tax incentives to companies.

Raman Agarwal, FIDC director, suggested increasing funds allocation from SIDBI and NABARD to refinance NBFCs, considering the rise in NBFC loans and concerns raised by the RBI regarding excessive bank dependency. NBFCs are seeking clarity on GST for loans and service charges, he said.

Meanwhile, asset management companies discussed issues concerning GIFT City and strategies to retain capital within the country. In an another meeting, Vivek Jalan, Chairman of National Fiscal Affairs and Taxation Committee, Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industry, suggested that the expenditure on scientific research should be incentivised so that Indian corporate spend more on R&D expenditure to manufacture indigenous products. To streamline the reconciliation process under income tax, he proposed to link PAN and TAN, akin to the PAN-Aadhaar linkage. He also requested to remove the requirement for payers to issue TDS/TCS certificates and consider prescribing Form 26AS (generated through secure safeguards). He also proposed to cover the cases of excess payment of custom duty, resulting in refund to the importers under faceless e-assessment.

Perfunctory compliance with rules leads to self-defeat: RBI

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

STRESSING on the need for effective governance, the Reserve Bank governor, Shaktikanta Das, has warned against perfunctory compliance with regulations saying that it will only lead to self-defeat.

He also advised regulatory supervisors as well as regulated entities not to become complacent with the improvement in the health of the financial institutions, saying in today's turbulent times, it's important for the financial sector to follow an adaptive and forward-looking approach to navigate emerging challenges.

"Perfunctory compliance with regulations would actually be self-defeating", Das said on Thursday while delivering the second global conference on financial sector resilience, organised by the RBI-run College of Supervisors here.

"In today's environment that's characterised by turbulent global spillovers and uncertainties, it's important for the financial sector to navigate amid the emerging challenges. This would entail strengthening governance and risk management practices, employing sustainable business models, and embracing technological advances and using them to our advantage," he said.

The governor said gross non-performing assets ratio of banks was 2.74 as of March 2024, down from 3.87 in March 2023 and 5.82 in March 2022. Similarly, for NBFCs these ratios stood at 3.96 as of March 2024, down from 5.03 in March 2023, and 6.29 in March 2022.

Das said strong governance is at the core of financial sector resilience. It's in fact the bedrock for informed and strategic decisions that align with long-term goals and risk management principles.

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

CLEAR SKY: NO 4 HEART OF INNINGS

Suryakumar's impactful innings in the middle-overs helps India beat Afghanistan by 47 runs in Barbados

GOMESH S @ Chennai

Suryakumar Yadav hit a 28-ball 53 on Thursday | AP

SURYAKUMAR Yadav was facing Rashid Khan. It had been ten overs into the Indian innings against Afghanistan at the Kensington Oval in Barbados. Having opted to bat on a dry surface that had little to no assistance for the pacers, Rohit Sharma and the other batters had their share of struggles.

The captain tried to go after Mohammad Nabi and got out. His opening partner, Virat Kohli, had taken his time to settle. He had been cautious, picking up twos and singles while Rishabh Pant tried to go after almost every delivery. For a brief while, it worked. India cruised to 47/1 in six overs. It was when Rashid came on.

The Afghanistan captain started off against Kohli, and bowled five balls without conceding a single boundary off the bat. An aggressive Pant was also going to take him on. So, a reverse sweep followed but he only connected with air. The ball thudded into the back leg and he was adjudged leg-before. With Noor Ahmad delivering a boundary-less over from the other end, the pressure went up. This time, it caught up to Kohli, who tried to loft Rashid over long-off only to find the fielder. In a span of 15 balls since the powerplay, India had lost two wickets while adding as many runs. However, on the last ball of the over, Yadav stretched across and swept Rashid for a boundary, giving a glimpse of what was to come. With Shivam Dube hitting a six off Noor, India had gotten to 79/3 in ten overs.

Once again, it was down to Yadav vs Rashid. The contest that had the potential to make or break India's innings. Rashid had been bowling like he had a thread attached to the ball, making it do whatever he intended. The first ball of the 11th over, a fuller delivery on the pads, Yadav pounced on it. A sharp sweep to the ropes. Second ball, another 96kph length delivery, Yadav tried to sweep again. This time, he missed it but thankfully prevented the ball from rolling on to the stumps. Was he playing one too many shots? Would he try again? The questions lingered. Unperturbed by all this, Yadav did one better. He got under a full delivery and deposited the ball into the stands with a slog sweep. SKY had landed in Barbados and given the push India needed. The leg-spinner would go on to trap Dube on the pads in the same over, but it didn't matter. Yadav had gained the momentum he needed. The Mumbaikar did not just stop there. He went on to sweep a wide full toss off Azmatullah Omarzai and followed it up with an hold-the-pose loft down the ground. A similar shot two overs later took Yadav, who was batting at a strike rate of 180, into the 40s.

What it also did was allow Hardik Pandya too accumulate runs without undue risks. By the time Yadav got out for 53 from 28 balls, India had crossed the 150-run mark. Pandya and rest took India to 181/8 but it was Yadav's 14 runs off Rashid (he conceded 3/26) that set the tone. It came as no surprise because he is one of the few India batters who thrives in middle-overs (165.91 SR in T20Is). "Absolutely, that's what I have practiced. I enjoy batting in the phase between 7-15. That's a very difficult phase and I tried to take charge. I know how to bat in this phase. With the left-hander coming in, it made my job easier," Yadav told the broadcasters.

Maybe, having Dube at the other end did help him mentally. But on a surface where everyone else seemed to be struggling, it was Yadav who stepped up for India with the bat. And it was more than enough as the bowlers dismissed Afghanistan for 134 to secure a 47-run win. Brief scores: India 181/8 in 20 ovs (Suryakumar 53, Hardik 32, Virat 20; Rashid 3/26, Farooqi 3/33) bt Afghanistan 134 in 20 ovs (Azmatullah 26; Bumrah 3/7, Arshdeep 3/36).

ICC MEN'S T20 WORLD CUP WEST INDIES & USA 2024 JUNE 1-29 — AMERICAN EXPEDITION

NOW OR NEVER

The picture in Group 2 will get a lot more clearer on Friday. A look...

CONTRASTING JOURNEYS

The two teams have had contrasting journeys so far. While England survived by a hair's breadth, South Africa, without ever really bringing their A-game, have won all five of their games. Something has to give. Whoever wins will have one foot in the semifinal.

WHICH CO-HOSTS WILL PREVAIL?

Having lost their first matches in the Super 8s, USA and West Indies are in a precarious position. As they take on each other, there might just be one survivor by the end of it. Who will that be?

Two FIDE officials in Chennai for inspection

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chennai

AS part of the process of choosing a host for the Chess World Championship, a two-member team is set to visit Chennai for an inspection of potential venues. The event is usually held at a hotel and the Sports Development Authority of Tamil Nadu, which bid for the event on behalf of the state government, would be taking the FIDE officials around some of the shortlisted venues.

It is understood that FIDE's Planning and Development Commission Secretary, Kermen Goryaeva, and FIDE's Head of PR, Anna Volkova, were scheduled to reach Chennai late on Thursday. Chennai is one of the three bidders for the match between defending champion Ding Liren and Candidates winner D Gukesh. The Chennai Grandmasters, supported by the TN government through SDAT, was organised at the Leela Palace hotel last year and the Chess Olympiad (supported be TN government) was held at Mahabalipuram in 2022. In 2013, the Hyatt Regency hosted the final between Viswanathan Anand and Magnus Carlsen.

A FIDE team visited Delhi more than a week ago. Singapore is the other city. All three bidders have agreed to a minimum guarantee money of $8.5 million (approx ₹71 crore).

Denmark's Morten Hjulmand (c) rejoices after scoring against England | AP

Dane good: Hjulmand denies lacklustre Eng

AGENCIES @ Frankfurt

ENGLAND failed to guarantee their place in the knockout stages of Euro 2024 after Morten Hjulmand's spectacular strike earned Denmark a 1-1 draw on Thursday.

A point was the least the Danes deserved as England again flattered to deceive in Frankfurt after an underwhelming 1-0 win over Serbia to open their tournament. Harry Kane had given the Three Lions an early lead as England pounced on a Danish defensive error. Hjulmand's rocket from outside the box levelled before half-time and Denmark were left to rue missing late chances to secure a famous victory.

England remain on top of Group C, two points clear of Slovenia, who they face in Cologne on Tuesday, and Denmark.

Serbia's late equaliser in a 1-1 draw with Slovenia earlier on Thursday also keeps their destiny in their own hands.

England boss Gareth Southgate said on Wednesday that he avoids media coverage during tournaments to escape negative stories. But will be braced for more criticism after another flat display from one of the pre-tournament favourites.

Denmark coach Kasper Hjulmand and goalkeeper Kasper Schmeichel claimed on the eve of the game they would not be fuelled by revenge for their Euro 2020 semifinal heartbreak to England three years ago.

Great escape: Jovic's late strike keeps Serbia afloat

Earlier in Munich, Luka Jovic snatched a last-gasp equaliser for Serbia in a 1-1 draw with Slovenia, keeping both teams in contention for a place in the last 16. Slovenia looked on course for their first ever win at the tournament after Zan Karnicnik put them ahead in the second half, but Jovic headed in a corner in the fifth minute of stoppage time to haul Serbia level.

BALKAN NATION THREATENS TO QUIT EVENT

BELGRADE: Serbia football officials threatened to quit the European Championship after they were offended by fan chants reportedly heard during the Albania-Croatia match. The game on Wednesday ended 2-2 in Hamburg. "What happened is scandalous and we will ask UEFA for sanctions, even at the cost of not continuing the competition," Serbia Football Association general secretary Jovan Surbatovic said. AFP

Results: Scotland 1-1 Switzerland; Slovenia 1-1 Serbia; Denmark 1-1 England.

TODAY'S MATCHES

Netherlands and France will lock horns in the final match of the day. Both sides had registered narrow wins in their opening matches and this contest will most likely decide who tops Group D. It will be interesting to see how the Les Bleus cope in the absence of star striker Kylian Mbappe.

IN A KIND OF GROUP OF DEATH, BRAZIL, AS ALWAYS, WILL BE THE CYNOSURE OF EYES BUT RULE OUT COLOMBIA AT YOUR OWN PERIL. A LOOK AT GROUP D, THE LAST OF THE COPA GROUPS...

COSTA RICA

In 2014, the unfancied nation figured in a group of death with Uruguay, England and Italy. They finished on top and advanced to the knockouts? Will lightning strike twice? The odds are, unfortunately, against them. One of their most famous players — keeper Keylor Navas — has announced his retirement. In the nascent CONCACAF 2026 qualifiers, they topped their group with seven unanswered goals but against better opposition, expect a dose of reality to hit them. But what they will always give is a good game.

COLOMBIA

After the disappointment of not qualifying for last World Cup, they are ideally placed to advance to the next finals. They are yet to lose in the qualifiers in six games, a run that's included a win over Brazil. In fact, their last loss came in 2022 and could seriously challenge Brazil for the top spot. James Rodriguez still features in the No 10 role but look out for the high-octane Luis Diaz in the wide areas and an high-energy midfield.

BRAZIL

A side very much in transition, still trying to rediscover itself after that quarterfinal loss to Croatia in Qatar. In the middle of a shaky qualifying campaign for the 2026 World Cup (two wins and three losses in six), this is a highly-important event for them to get their bearings right. With respect to players, a good tournament for Vinicius Junior could put him in position AI for prestigious individual global honours. Also, the exciting Endrick will be on show at a global level.

PARAGUAY

As a team, the outfit have punched above their weight but they will need to reproduce that famous defensive mindset to make it out of the group stages. In their six World Cup qualifying matches so far, they have only scored one and conceded three. The main challenge, then, is pretty self-explanatory; where are the goals going to come from? For fans of the Premier League, one player who could create a half chance is Julio Enciso but can the young man carry the creative burden all by himself?

Balraj aspiring for India's best finish at upcoming Paris Olympics

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

IF being the lone entry from the country was not enough, Balraj Panwar will find himself all alone on his boat when the rowing competition starts at the Paris Olympics on July 27. Qualifying for the Games in the single sculls, the rower from Haryana knows the challenges that will be thrown at him at the Vaires-sur-Marne Nautical Stadium would be immense.

Mental toughness will play a big role if he wishes to surpass the best show by Indian rowers at the Olympics. For record, Arvind Singh and Arjun Lal Jat's 11th-placed finish in the lightweight men's double sculls in Tokyo has been the best show by Indian rowers in the Games' history. "In other rowing events, you have a partner to discuss things and chalk out strategies as per the changing scenario but that's not the case in single sculls. Mental fortitude comes into play here. Self-motivation becomes important," Balraj told journalists on Thursday during a virtual media interaction organised jointly by the Sports Authority of India, India Olympic Association and the Rowing Federation of India.

Having started rowing only in 2020, Balraj narrowly missed bronze at the Asian Games last year finishing fourth. The experience, however, made him wiser as apart from propelling his boat with oars during training sessions at the Army Rowing Node in Pune, he is also working with a psychologist to stay in a better frame of mind. "Twice or thrice a week, I have classes with the psychologist. It will stand me in good stead during the competition. Besides, the experience at the Asian Games has taught me how to compete at the big international events," he added.

Indian rowers have been participating in the Olympics since 2000 with single scullers competing regularly since the 2004 Athens Games with Tokyo being the only exception. Dattu Bhokanal has been the best among them with the 13th-place finish at the 2016 Rio Olympics. Balraj looks to change that as his goal this Olympics will be to qualify for the semifinals. "I aim to give India its best finish in the Olympics by reaching the semifinals in the single sculls."

The rower will reach France 20 days before the competition to get acclimatised to the weather. "I will train at a club in France. It will be of great help. Acclimatising to weather is one such benefit." Balraj, who is a sepoy with the Indian Army, is training with three rowers at the ARN at the moment. One of them, Salman Khan, will accompany him to the Games. "I will train with Salman there to get ready for the competition."

Despite him qualifying for the world's biggest sporting extravaganza, he admits without hesitation that he is still a work in progress and needs improve a lot on technical aspects of the game. "Speed and endurance come through practice but I still have to work a lot on technical aspects. A lot needed to be improved." Hailing from Karnal, Balraj lost his father when he was 11. His mother Kamla Devi worked at a garment factory to make sure the family comprising six children (four daughters and two sons) got food and basic education. Once he was recruited by the Army, he started taking care of his family's expenses. With only a little more than a month remaining for him to become an Olympian, Balraj's fellow villagers still cannot believe what he has achieved so far and the more he is going to earn. "Nobody in my village can believe that one among them is going to represent the country at the Olympics," said Balraj.

Artificial Intelligence firm Anthropic upgraded its chatbots on Thursday for the second time in four months, as it fights to keep its place as the main contender to OpenAI's ChatGPT. KNOW THE POTENTIAL OF VIRTUAL TWIN TECHNOLOGY

SEVERAL sectors, especially manufacturing, use the virtual twin technology for optimal results. Virtual twins are digital replicas with real-time representation of behaviour and interactions. Gartner says data from multiple digital twins can be aggregated for a composite view across a number of real-world entities, such as a power plant or a city and their related processes.

But the scope of application of the new technology is much wider. According to a recent report by Dassault Systems, a virtual twin represents not only a product or system as it exists now but also how it was designed, tested and manufactured in the past, and how it could be operated and maintained in the future, thus providing provenance and prediction through the asset and systems lifecycle. It explains that in the manufacturing sector, virtual twins can maintain human-led process lines, while helping design and realise sustainable, autonomous factories of the future, with the ability to retrace all digital shifts made by an entire value chain over time.

Dassault Systems and Nasscom's report on the adoption and impact of virtual twin technology reveals high awareness and doubling of virtual twin adoption since the pandemic. It says 90% of the global enterprises have explored at least one virtual twin PoC (proof of concept) and there have been 2X virtual twin implementations during 2020-2023, compared to 2014-2019.

Indian enterprises have also started to explore virtual twins, and like global counterparts, they focus on product and process stages, and supplier selection.

ELEMENTS OF A VIRTUAL TWIN TECH

The report says virtual twins are the product of convergence of multiple technologies applied to integrated IT-OT (information technology-operational technology) use cases. There are three core technology pillars — software applications, IT-OT (hardware, and connectivity technologies – that make virtual twins come to life. By capturing and emulating physical asset behaviour, in addition to its 3D structure and context, virtual twins evolve along with the physical asset over the lifecycle, thereby ensuring that the critical elements of provenance and continuity are managed.

According to MarketsandMarkets, in terms of revenue, the global digital twin market size was estimated to be about $10.1 billion in 2023, and is expected to reach $110.1 billion by 2028, growing at a compounded annual growth rate of 61.3% from 2023 to 2028. It says the growth of the digital twin market is driven by the demand for digital twins in the healthcare industry and the increasing focus on predictive maintenance.Though there are many advantages, one of the challenging factors is the cost of technology integration. Dassault Systems report says virtual twin scale-ups will require effective handling of impending issues across data, tech integration, skilling, organisational readiness, and cost management. It says that 45% of virtual twin deployments take nearly 12-24 months at each level and that 88% enterprises were able to build a virtual twin in less than two years. Providers, particularly specialist suppliers of next-gen 3D simulation and experience capabilities, have a crucial role to play in helping organizations understand, plan, prepare, and execute virtual twins where most feasible and impactful.

No effective AI without effective governance, says CEOs in India

Chief Executive Officers (CEOs) in India are facing workforce, culture and governance-related challenges as they act quickly to implement and scale generative AI across their organisations, according to a new study by IBM Institute for Business Value. The annual global study of 3,000 CEOs from over 30 countries and 26 industries reveals the high importance placed by CEOs in India on AI governance, with 71% of those surveyed saying trusted AI is impossible without effective AI governance in organisations. The study also noted a contrast in the actual adoption of AI governance policies with only 42% of Indian CEO respondents saying they have good generative AI governance in place today. In the survey, 75% of Indian CEO respondents say that inspiring their team with a common vision produces better outcomes than providing precise standards and targets. Yet 31% acknowledge that their employees don't fully understand how strategic decisions impact them.

AI, a boon to cybercriminals, and also to those trying to stop them

Securonix, a cybersecurity player specialising in Next-Gen Security Information and Event Management (SIEM), has presented a whitepaper "AI as Cyber Weapon: Targeting and Defence" that delves into the critical role played by AI in helping cybercriminals as well as those trying to prevent cyberattacks. On the defensive side, AI can significantly improve threat detection and response times, it said. The white paper says by utilising machine learning to develop dynamic threat models that can identify and correlate suspicious activities, AI can provide proactive defence against cyber threats. On the other hand, the most significant way AI transforms cyberwarfare is by developing autonomous hacking systems. These AI-powered tools can identify vulnerabilities, exploit weaknesses, and adapt strategies based on the target's response. More crucially, they help malicious actors carry out large-scale cyberattacks, the white paper said.
